

Miguel Cabral is a Public Health Medical Doctor in the Public Health Unit of Maia/Valongo, and a student in the Specialization Course of Hospital Administration in the NOVA National Public Health School. He has collaborated in the Subject of Health Information Systems of the Public Health Specialization Course at NOVA National Public Health School since 2019.

He has extensive experience in NGO work, both nationally and internationally, and has been till recently the Vice-President of the Human Rights Committee of the Conference of INGOs of the Council of Europe.

He has been part of several teams working on spreading the concepts of Digital Health. From 2011, when he was a member of the organizing team of the first Health 2.0 Pre-General Assembly workshop of the International Federation of Medical Students' Association (IFMSA) to 2020, when he was part of the team who organized the "Culture Workshop - Managing change through digital health tools" at the European Academy for Health Care Leaders of the Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore from Rome.

He is part of the Portuguese Association of Health Administrators (APAH) Information Management Working Group.

In his practice, as an individual contributor, he has worked in several digital automation processes, mainly in data extraction and collection.